

Open New Talent Competition

Application form

Conditions of entry.

The competition is open to any bonsai society members or individual members, providing they are not employed in full time employment as a bonsai professional. They may not be previous winners of the original FOBBS New Talent Contest.

The winner's prize will include one years' membership of FoBBS and, if selected, the opportunity to represent the U.K. at the next European Final, for which the Federation will contribute to the costs of travel and accomodation. Applicants must provide their own tools, wire, turn-tables and associated materials.

The Federation will provide the trees for the U.K. heat ; contestants will be given the opportunity to purchase them after the competition.
